Brought to you by BEACON, Facilitated by Sue Salvemini, Founder and President of Focal Pointe Consulting Group, Inc. Sue brings over 25 years of Corporate and Military experience developing leaders, building teams, launching medical device products and businesses. She has done this by repeatedly creating a clear vision, establishing an achievable plan and executing. As a leader, Sue understands the value of developing people for growth and productivity. Leadership starts with how you lead yourself and Sue is passionate about the value of taking personal accountability and ownership for your development and successful career navigation.

Sue holds a BS in Mathematics from the University of Massachusetts and an EdM in Human Resources and Organizational Change from Boston University. She is an iPEC Certified Professional Coach and a Certified Energy Leadership™ Index Master Practitioner. Sue consults a variety of clients and organizations on Business Strategy, Leadership Development, and Executive Coaching. In her free time, you will find Sue cheering for her three teenagers at soccer tournaments and track meets, playing a good game of Gin Rummy with her husband of 20 years, or hopping into an occasional Tough Mudder for the exercise and fun of it!
